Abstract of Proceedings.

The fifty-sixth annual session of the Texas Annual Conference of the M. E. Church, South, convened in Brenham, Texas, December 4, 1895, and adjourned sine die December 9, 1895. For the fifth time in its history, Bishop J. C. Keener was its President. The organization of this session was completed by the election of Seth Ward as Secretary, and Weems Wootton and D. H. Hotchkiss assistants, with G. E. Clothier Statistical Secretary.

The routine work—answering the disciplinary questions, reports of committees, etc.—is shown in succeeding parts. The work of the Conference, other than this, is shown in the following abstracts:

First Day's Session, Wednesday, December 4, 1895.

Various communications were read and referred to committees.

A communication from Dr. I. G. John, presenting to the Conference the records of the Texas Conference from 1840 to 1861, was read, and the Secretary was instructed to convey to Dr. John the thanks of the Conference for his service in this matter. The original records had been lost for years, and from various sources Dr. John had collected the material, collated and transcribed it under his direction, and presented it, substantially bound, thus, as nearly as possible, completing the records of the Conference from its organization to the present time.

Under call of the 20th question, "Are all preachers blameless in their life and official administration?" the name of W. Wimberly was called, and Seth Ward stated that a committee had been appointed in August last, to investigate charges against him, W. Wimberly, and that said committee had found a trial to be necessary on a charge of immorality. Dr. G. C. Rankin was appointed to represent the church; Jas. Kilgore was elected Assistant Secretary of the Conference, and appointed to serve the Committee of Trial. Dr. H. V. Philpott represented the accused. ### Reports and Resolutions.

Report on Education.

SOUTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY.—We are glad to report this institution as prosperous along all the lines of its work and promise.

We are beginning to realize the day-dawn so wonderfully seen by its wise projectors through the deep twilight of its first inception.

With a faculty of high order and full capacity for its increasing patronage, with its continually enlarging enrollment, and with capacious and ample buildings prospectively rising to our view on the solid basis of about three-fourths of the needed funds for their erection already secured, we can safely rejoice in the prosperity of this our loved institution.

The religious feature of the institution grows apace. Last year the per cent of church membership in the student body was about eighty; this year it is about ninety per cent. Then with gratitude we repeat the statement of our last report, "that the blight of the saloon is a thing of the past in Georgetown, the seat of the institution."

The Southwestern University has, we are informed, more theological and also more academic students than any other college or university under the control of our church. To date, its enrollment is four hundred and fifteen; of these one hundred and ten are receiving free tuition, and of this number sixty-five are preparing for the ministry.

The free tuition of the students of the University alone about balance against the entire income from all the Conferences, while there are yet forty-five others, children of ministers, receiving free tuition. This should emphasize the obligation to continue our educational collection and bring it up to the full measure of the assessment.

During the past session, eighty-one students have enjoyed the benefits of Giddings Hall, without which aid many of them could not have attended school. Blessings on the generous donor whose gift made this Helping Hall a possibility! God multiply the number of generous givers to this institution until the needed buildings and the thorough equipment of the Southwestern University becomes an accomplished fact!

The last graduating class numbered thirty-one; eight of these were preachers, two of whom have already gone to the foreign mission field: J. B. Cox, to Mexico, and E. Pilley, to China.

THE LADIES' ANNEX, as is wisely said in the Curator's report, "is a logical sequence of the University." There are young ladies who seek thorough literary and scientific training under able professors, and demonstrate their ability to take, with honor, the highest literary degrees. The Annex affords this opportunity, being served by the regular professors of the University, besides efficient teachers in music, art and elocution.

CHAPPELL HILL FEMALE COLLEGE.—This school is presided over by Prof. Landon F. Smith with an able and efficient corps of teachers. It has recently changed hands, and has no doubt suffered in its patronage from the temporary suspense concerning its future. The enrollment this year is as follows;

Collegiate Department, thirty-three; Primary Department, seventeen, making the total number of students fifty; of these fifteen are from abroad, and four receive free tuition.

The trustees of this school have purchased pianos and furniture formerly the property of the president, at a cost of about fourteen hundred dollars; the balance of the old debt being four hundred dollars, making in all about eighteen hundred dollars indebtedness. This amount they have borrowed for five years at eight per cent interest. Prof. Smith pays one hundred and twenty-five dollars a year for the use of this property; each pupil using these pianos pays to the trustees one dollar per month for their use. The amount thus secured will pay the interest on the debt, and leave a small sinking fund to pay the principal, even at the present small patronage of the Music Department. If the attendance is increased this will increase the sinking fund. So, with such help as the Conference may give, this school will no doubt pay its indebtedness without difficulty.

We recommend that the educational assessment be, as in past years, fifteen hundred dollars, and that it be divided as follows: Three-fourths to Southwestern University, and one-fourth to Chappell Hill Female College.

The educational collections for this year amount to $1069.52. Paid for printing minutes, $14.52; balance divided as follows: Southwestern University, $633; Chappell Hill Female College, $422; for Paine and Lane Institute, we have collected this year, $163.08. We recommend the same assessment as last year, viz.: $250. For the General Board of Education, we have collected this year, $67.25, and have received from the Sunday-school Board, $12.85, collected on Children's Day. We recommend the same assessment as last year, $185.

Respectfully submitted,

A. E. GOODWYN, President.

Books and Periodicals.

To the Bishop and Members of the Texas Annual Conference:

DEAR FATHERS AND BRETHREN:—Your Committee on Books and Periodicals have had under consideration the report of the Publishing House, as well as the report of the Joint Board of Publication of the Texas Christian Advocate.

We rejoice in the prosperity of the Publishing House and fully indorse the recommendations of the report in reference to our Sunday-school literature and its exclusive use in all our Sunday-schools. The improvement of the Sunday-school Magazine has been very marked during the past year, and we believe its extended use will greatly assist our teachers in their preparation for Sunday-school work. We also cordially commend the lesson quarterlies and lesson papers. We indorse the statement in the report that the Christian Advocate was "never more ably nor honestly edited than at present," and earnestly recommend it to all members of the church as one of the best of all the religious weeklies; it is in fact a great paper, of which the church should be proud. We trust the circulation will be largely increased within the bounds of this Conference during the coming year. The Review is rapidly taking rank among the standard publications of the country; many articles published in it during the past year have been among the ablest and most valuable contributions to magazine literature published in the United States, while it contained nothing light or chaffy. All readers of sound literature, and especially those who rejoice in the development of Southern literature, must be proud of the record the Review is making, and its impress upon Southern literature can not fail to be most healthy.

We believe the Epworth Era is well calculated to promote the interests of the Epworth League, and trust that our preachers will cordially labor to increase its circulation.

We also commend to our preachers and people the books issued from our publishing house and urge them to patronize the same as far as possible in their purchases.

The Texas Christian Advocate grows better with each succeeding issue. It is taking rank among the best of the Conference papers. We have nothing but commendation for the work of both editor and publisher. No better instrument for the promotion of all the interests of the church can be used by our preachers.

Your committee would respectfully recommend the appointment of Bros. Jos. B. Sears, W. W. Adickes, and Seth Ward, as members of the Joint Board of Publication of the Texas Christian Advocate.

Respectfully submitted,

FRED L. ALLEN, Chairman.

Epworth League.

During the year just expiring the League movement has been wonderfully quickened and invigorated by the two great gatherings of young people held within our borders. At the State League Conference, in Houston, last April, a wonderful amount of enthusiasm was generated, which has been wisely directed into practical channels, and the results are worthy of Texas and Methodism. This union between the young Christians of the State has been cemented by their common zeal in a common enterprise for the evangelization of the world. Many who had hitherto held themselves aloof from the League movement, or who had regarded it with apprehension, have been drawn into it by the spirit of enterprise with which it has been baptized, and are now zealously at work in its ranks. In August, the Leagues of our own Conference met in Galveston, where their deliberations and Christian fellowship were wonderfully blessed of God.

We now have sixty-three chapters reported at this session of the Texas Conference, where our young men and women are learning to pray publicly and to speak freely of God's personal dealings with their souls. Here they are persuaded by Christians of the same age, and with the same tastes and the same temptations to enter upon that course of self-denial and cross-bearing which God has promised to bless with his approval. Here they are being taught, by their own successes and failures, to correct their own errors, as well as to measure and develop their own powers. By the severe discipline of a personal responsibility that is generally recognized, by the harsh criticism of an exacting world and by the loving sympathy of a spiritual church, they are being taught to appreciate the possibilities and limitations of their own influence, so as to take a deeper hold on the blessed Son of God.

The work being done by the League vindicates the wisdom of its organization by showing it superior to all other young people's societies for our own boys and girls.

The other young people's societies should be encouraged, because they are intended to carry to other congregations some of the benefits of Methodism; but they must not be allowed to supplant Methodism in our own congregations. The very Christians who deny to their own girls and women the right to pray and speak in their own social meetings, are drawn to our houses of worship by the fervor that our young ladies impart to the devotional meetings of the League. From the providence of God, which always attended the progress of our church, we have learned that while "woman should have power on her head because of the angels," she should also have praise and prayer upon her lips because of her influence over men.

The literary and social departments of the League are not secondary, but co-ordinate with the Spiritual department. Our young people are encouraged to seek the refinements of social life, rather than the baubles of society life; the intellectual culture rather than literary dissipation. The kingdom of heaven is to be sought first, but it may be expected to add to, and regulate the other departments of life.

C. R. LAMAR,
For the Committee.

Report on Temperance.

We recognize intemperance to be the greatest foe of the church and of general humanity in our land of to-day. It, to a great extent, checks the progress of the Gospel where it is strongly intrenched, and frequently draws otherwise good men away from God and the church. It is a foe that will have to be met bravely. The church, as a body, must stand in open rebellion against it. We must not take a neutral stand, for we may be assured that the leaders of the intemperance band (and their name is legion) will fight to the finish to hold their already well fortified position.

Our church, our nation, and our sacred homes are in danger. Intemperance, in a measure, rules our ballot, it defies our laws, it disregards our Holy Sabbath, it comes into our homes and brings with it want and misery. It makes widows and orphans, it fills our jails and penitentiaries, it brings murder and the gallows and mobs bent on evil. This insidious emissary of the arch fiend of hell absorbs three hundred millions of dollars, and carries to the grave and eternal night two hundred thousand souls every year.

O, how we should be awakened. Our church speaks plainly and emphatically against this evil. It is an enemy to intemperance. Our blessed Lord said: "I am come to destroy the works of the devil." We stand in his place and must keep up the fight until this enemy is destroyed.

We would recommend that temperance societies be organized wherever practicable. Also, that in the local option movement, our ministry and the people stand together and work and pray to carry precincts and counties until Texas shall be rid of this evil.

Respectfully submitted,

ROBT. T. WOOLSEY, Chairman.

Report of Colportage Board.

To the Bishop and Members of the Texas Conference:

DEAR BRETHREN:—From the report of our general colporter, Rev. I. Z. T. Morris, and other sources, we learn that in 1890, Rev. I. Z. T. Morris was, by the Texas Conference, appointed general colporter for the Conference, and that the other Conferences of Texas endorsed him by agreeing to co-operate with the Texas Conference in the establishment of a Depository, which was subsequently located under the management of Rev. I. Z. T. Morris at Fort Worth, with the patronage of five Texas Conferences. That at the recent sessions of the North and Northwest Texas Conferences they each appointed a Conference colporter to operate within the bounds of their respective Conferences, thus virtually dissolving their relation to the Depository, leaving the general colporter with quite a large lot of books on hand which were purchased for the Depository.

On view of these facts, we recommend that this Conference continue to patronize the Depository, and inasmuch as the North and Northwest Texas Conferences have withdrawn from the Depository, we further recommend that the Depository be removed from Fort Worth to Houston, making it more central to the patronizing Conference, and increasing the possibilities of this important work, and that the colporter be requested to use such means as will put the institution on a solid financial basis. Respectfully submitted, T. B. GRAVES, for Board.

Report on the Texas Methodist Orphanage.

Your committee appointed to look after the interests of the Orphanage, beg leave to report the following:

Our inquiries after the interests of the Home, we are glad to say, have revealed the fact that the Home has had a year of prosperity, and that we now have actually a Methodist Orphans' Home that is actually sheltering, feeding, clothing and training orphan children. We rejoice to know that we now have in our Home forty-three orphan children, and our Board of Directors assure us that the children are being well provided for, and that they are being religiously trained and educated, nine of them having embraced Christ and having been received into the church. Your committee would call the attention of all Texas Methodism to the fact that the Home is now full, and to the fact of the cramped condition of the Home for want of room. And we do hope and pray that the time will soon come when the stalwart Methodism of the great State of Texas will rise up and begin to build a home the capacity of which will be a fair representation of the Methodism of Texas. Your committee rejoice that the Texas Annual Conference has met in full and has, in excess of the assessment made on the Conference, paid over one hundred dollars, and that every pastoral charge in the Conference took the collection for the Home.

The committee heartily indorse the action of the Board of Directors in the re-election of Reverend W. H. Vaughan as business manager for the Home for next year, and we recommend that an assessment of $600.00 be made on our Conference for the current expenses of the Home, and that the Joint Board of Finance be requested to apportion the same to the various districts in the Conference.

Feeling that the straightened condition of the Home, for want of more room, and that the meagre accommodations of the Home do not fairly represent our church in Texas, and that this matter be laid upon the hearts of our people, we offer the following resolution:

Resolved, That every pastor appoint, in his pastoral charge, a committee of three, whose duty it shall be, during the Christmas holidays, to raise all the money and clothing they can for the benefit of the Home. All of which is respectfully submitted,

H. M. SEARS, Chairman.

Committee on Bible Cause.

The Bible is our only guide. It is the Word of God. When we pray we talk to God, but when we read the Bible God talks to us. The Bible is the sword of the Spirit, the book of books. Christ has made his Word the mighty power for elevating and purifying the masses.

The American Bible Society was established for the purpose of printing the Bible without comment, and selling the same at actual cost. It has proven to be a mighty power in the conversion of the world.

This being true, we are in duty bound to do all we can to spread the gospel in this way. We have the utmost confidence in the Bible Society, and will co-operate with it in sending the gospel into every home.

We are sorry to state, however, that there has been a falling off this year in money and reports from charges in the Conference.

WHEREAS, There has been much indifference on the part of some of our ministers; and,

WHEREAS, The sum collected is small;

Resolved, first, That we, as pastors of the Texas Conference, seeing the importance of this great work, will hereafter take up collections in our various charges for the American Bible Society.

Only forty charges heard from this year, and thirty-five last year. Amount received this year, in cash, $111.40.

[The report of the Statistical Secretary shows $161.75 to have been contributed. Sums making up the difference have probably been paid into local auxiliaries of the A. B. S., by different charges.—ED. MINUTES.]

Praying for a greater improvement and interest, we respectfully submit this.

J. M. WESSON:

A. J. ANDERSON, Secretary.

Report of Committee on Conference Relations.

To the Bishop and Members of the Texas Annual Conference M. E. Church, South, in Session in Brenham, Texas, Dec. 7, 1895:

Your Committee on Conference Relations beg leave to submit their report. They have had the name of G. C. Stovall submitted to them for supernumerary relation, and after carefully considering his case, we recommend to the Conference that he be granted a supernumerary relation.

We have had the names of the following brethren referred to us for superannuated relation: F. A. McShan, D. H. Linebaugh, T. W. Blake, John H. Davidson, James M. Wesson, Wesley Smith, W. K. Turner, W. G. Nelms, E. S. Smith, Gideon Powledge. After considering each of these brethren separately we recommend that each one of them be granted a superannuated relation.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

H. M. SEARS, Chairman.

Report of Committee on District Conference Records.

To the Bishop and Members of the Texas Annual Conference:

DEAR BRETHREN:—The committee appointed to examine the District Conference records wish to make the following report:

AUSTIN DISTRICT.

The hand-writing in this book is very irregular. There are some superfluous words and some slight grammatical errors.

The book is well indexed, and with the exception of the above mentioned mistakes, is well kept.

BRENHAM DISTRICT.

The writing in this book is not as good as it might be. There are a few erasures which give the records an unsightly appearance, but on the whole the book is well kept.

HOUSTON DISTRICT.

We take pleasure in commending this book. It is well arranged, conveniently indexed and written in a neat legible hand.

HUNTSVILLE DISTRICT.

We find this record intelligently arranged. The minutes of each session in regular order. We might pronounce this book perfect, were it not for the omission of the election of a secretary, and the haste which seemed to have been indulged in, in transcribing the minutes.

CALVERT DISTRICT.

The hand-writing in this book is good, and in the main it is well kept. There are a few blurs, and the red ink is too freely used.

A. H. CARTER, Chairman Com.

J. M. ADAMS, Secretary.

Report of Sunday-School Board.

DEAR BRETHREN:—Your Sunday School Board beg leave to submit their report. We are gratified to be able to note a small increase in the number of Sunday-schools over last year. We rejoice over any prosperity the Sunday-school cause has enjoyed. While we do this, we are very conscious of the fact that our Sunday-school work is not what it should be, and especially is this so, so far as our Conference is concerned.

In the years 1893 and 1894, we held in the bounds of our Conference a Sunday-school Convention, which did much to keep the Sunday-school interest alive; these Conventions were seasons of great profit to the Sunday-school workers. The past year we had no Convention. The Board, through its chairman, called for invitations to hold the Convention, but no invitation was received.

The whole State, at the time, was ablaze with Epworth League enthusiasm, and your Board fears the interest of the Sunday-schools was to some extent overshadowed by the League interest. The members of this Board are zealous Epworth League workers, but when we consider the great importance of Sunday-school work, we would warn all parties concerned not to allow the Epworth League to, in any way, interfere with our Sunday school work. In our review of the work of the Sunday-school, we see some prevailing evils we would call attention to. The almost universal practice of allowing the children who attend Sunday-school to leave the church after school closes, and not remain for preaching. This is an evil that should be looked after and remedied by our people. The Board would warn all our pastors against this evil practice, and to use their very best endeavors to keep as many children as possible to the preaching service.

While the Board is in love with our Sunday-school literature published in Nashville, and would urge upon all the Sunday-schools to use this literature, yet we deplore the fact that our schools have almost entirely drifted away from the old time-honored catechism that did so much in their day to indoctrinate our children. And we would urge the importance of an early return to the use of this important literature in all our Sunday-schools. The Board desires to hold, some time in the early spring, at some accessible point, a Sunday-school Convention for our Conference, and asks all the members of the Conference to take the matter upon their hearts and do all in their power to assist the Board in making this a glorious success.

Your Board would urge further, that every pastor begin in time and make all necessary arrangements for the successful observance of Children's Day, the coming May.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

H. M. SEARS, Chairman.

In connection with our work we submit the following from the

WOMANS' PARSONAGE AND HOME MISSION SOCIETY.

This year's report of the W. P. & H. M. Society, in many respects, is very encouraging. We have made a decided advance. Our societies have doubled. Our treasurer reports $71.34 for our Conference fund, and the same amount for the Central Board. This is small, but much more has been spent locally, of which we have no accurate account, because of the irregularity of the reports. Every connectional dollar is sent directly to the treasurer, and each Conference finds a neat sum to be distributed where needed.

It will be but a short time before all the aid societies will be included in the W. P. & H. M. Society. We go forward cheerfully, trusting that we may be able to do more for our Master's cause.

(Signed)

MRS. F. L. ALLEN, Conference President.

We have received $142.68 from the W. P. & H. M. Society, $71.34 of which goes to the General Board. $50.00 is appropriated to the parsonage of Zion Circuit, and $21.34 to the parsonage of Bald Prairie Circuit.

The following officers for the Conference Society were elected by the Board of Church Extension: Mrs. F. L. Allen, President; Mrs. E. F. McGowen, Treasurer; Mrs. O. T. Hotchkiss, Secretary.

In connection with our report, we submit the following:

Resolved, That the thanks of this Conference be tendered to the officers of the First National Bank of Brenham, for the courtesy and liberality in handling the funds of this Board and providing drafts and exchange free of charge.

Memoirs.

At the memorial session of the Conference with Rev. Seth Ward presiding, religious services were led by Rev. W. Wootton. During the year one of the superannuated members of the Conference had died. Following the reading of the report of the Committee on Memoirs, Bros., Wesson, Philpott, Wootton and O. T. Hotchkiss spoke of the worth and work of our deceased brother, after which the report was adopted. It was read by H. M. Sears, and is as follows:

REV. CHARLES WARNER THOMAS.

This good man went to his reward in heaven at 3:30 p. m., July 6, 1895, from the residence of his daughter, in San Marcos, Texas. His struggle with the last enemy was short, lasting but a few moments. His victory was complete and triumphant. He was born in Litchfield county, in the State of Connecticut, April 1, 1816, and was at his death 79 years, 3 months and 6 days old. He was the eldest of five children in his father's family, and shared with the other members of his family in the industrial activities common to country farm life in the days of his youth. His early education was limited to the elementary studies commonly taught in the schools of his county. Country life and farm labor contributed to the development of a robust body and vigorous constitution. He grew up to early manhood under the religious instruction of a Christian mother, to whom he confided his desires for future usefulness, and in whom he found a prudent and safe counselor. At the age of about 18 years he entered the grammar school at Hartford, Conn. In the fall of 1835, he entered Yale College, where he remained over two years; failing health forced him to leave Yale and seek a warmer climate, which he found first in Georgia, and then in Texas. In the spring of 1840, he landed in Rutersville, Fayette county, Texas. During that year he was appointed one of the teachers in Rutersville college. On October 3, 1840, he was licensed to preach by Robert Alexander, who was that year presiding elder of Rutersville District. He was present as a local preacher at the organization of the Texas Conference at Rutersville, Texas, December 25, 1840. He preached his first sermon at Rabbs Prairie, November 15, 1840, using the text "Jesus Wept," John, 11:35. On June 27, 1841, he was happily married to Miss Susana Amanda Hill, in whom he found a true helpmeet indeed. This pious woman always cheerfully submitted to whatever hardships and privations his holy calling imposed upon them, always rejoicing with him in his success, and bending with him under his crosses. He was admitted on trial into the Texas Conference at San Augustine, December, 1841. The years 1842 and 1843 he was appointed Professor of Ancient and Modern Languages in Rutersville College. He was ordained deacon by Bishop Soule, at Houston, Texas, January 11, 1846, and was ordained elder by Bishop Paine, at the Conference in Seguin, Texas, December 11, 1849. During his connection with the Texas Conference he received the following appointments: Professor in Rutersville College, two years; Rutersville Circuit, four years; Independence Circuit, one year; La Grange Circuit, four years; Navadad Circuit, two years; Fayetteville Circuit, four years; La Grange District, one year; Washington Circuit, two years; Bastrop Circuit, four years; Egypt Circuit, two years; Colorado Circuit, two years; Alleyton Circuit, four years, Columbus, two years; Eagle Lake, four years.

At the Conference held in Houston, December, 1887, where he had received deacon's orders forty-one years before, he asked for and received the supernumerary relation. His wife had passed away August 3, 1886, and left him a sad old man. At the Conference in La Grange, December, 1889, he asked for a superannuated relation, which relation he held to the day of his death. For more than forty-five years Brother Thomas labored in the wilds of Texas, teaching and preaching the gospel of the Son of God. His love for Methodism led him to do all in his power to preserve its purity. He observed a firm, inflexible, but gentle and loving enforcement of discipline which always vindicated the character of the church and generally secured the restoration of offenders. He was as bold to defend the church from outward attacks as he was careful to guard against internal dissensions. He was steady, faithful and true, candid and devout. His influence was good. He was the last link that bound us to the organization of Methodism in Texas. We may say the last who started at the beginning. He has joined the company of heroes who have gone up to inherit the kingdom of our fathers. He was one of the company who through God has given to us vineyards that we planted not, and cities we did not build. They opened up the highways for us, leveling down the hills and filling up the valleys, making the rough places smooth, and making ready for the graceful advancement of the higher civilization. He died with his children weeping around him, and as he bade each an affectionate farewell he fell asleep and was gathered to his fathers, dying as a Christian minister might wish to die.

“Servant of God well done
Cease from thy loved employ,
The battle fought, the victory won,
Enter thy Master’s joy.”

The above figures are for the year 1895, and are returns from the English-Speaking Conferences only. The reports for this year, of the work of the German Mission Conference, and the portions of the New Mexico and Mexican Border Mission Conferences, lying within Texas, were not obtainable, but guided by the returns of 1894, it is safe to say that with the addition of their members, the total membership of the Church in Texas, December 1st, 1895, was 184,000, with 1310 Church Edifices, and property of all descriptions valued at $2,836,000 00. The ministry numbers 750 itinerants and 1119 local preachers, working within 42 presiding elder's districts. Where now these results are seen, there was in 1840, at the time of the organization of the Texas Conference, but this one Conference, with 3 Districts, 18 traveling preachers, 25 local preachers, and a church membership of 1870 persons, of whom 230 were colored. Thus has the work of the Lord prospered in our hands.

Typewriters of all makes, new or second hand, office furniture and supplies, etc.
